

Preventing Water System Pollution

All buildings are designed to have 3-compartment septic tanks and chemical vaults that stores domestic and laboratory wastes that will prevent polluted water entering the water system in the university and in the nearby communities.

Sample Plan showing the design of septic tanks inside the campus

SANITARY ISOMETRIC VIEW

SCALE

1:200MTS

