

Water conscious building standards

The University started using smart and water saving sanitary fixtures on newly renovated and newly constructed buildings.

Figure 6.3.4a. Sensor-operated urinals and water-saver water closets

Some building are provided with rainwater harvesting system that collects water during rainy season and are connected in the toilet water supply for flushing water closets and urinals.

Figure 6.3.4a. Water harvesting tanks installed in one of the buildings inside TAU campus