

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS ON CLIMATE CHANGE FOR ORGANIZATION LEADERS
San Jose, Mayantoc, Tarlac
May 25, 2023

Training on Environmental awareness on climate change for organization leaders of San Jose, Mayantoc, Tarlac was done to give insights on the possible causes of climate change and what are the possible mitigation activities will be done to slowdown the further impact of climate change. This training tapped the leaders that will be served as role model of the action and activities in their barangay. Moreover, resource speaker discussed about the rules and punishments being implemented by the government unit to those who will arrested in illegal logging, capturing of wild animals, using of illegal machines in cutting trees etc.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS ON CLIMATE CHANGE FOR ORGANIZATION LEADERS
San Jose, Mayantoc, Tarlac
May 25, 2023

Training on Environmental awareness on climate change for organization leaders of San Jose, Mayantoc, Tarlac was done to give insights on the possible causes of climate change and what are the possible mitigation activities will be done to slowdown the further impact of climate change. This training tapped the leaders that will be served as role model of the action and activities in their barangay. Moreover, resource speaker discussed about the rules and punishments being implemented by the government unit to those who will arrested in illegal logging, capturing of wild animals, using of illegal machines in cutting trees etc.

Facilitated by the TAU-CAF Forestry Department, a free training entitled “Environmental Awareness on Climate Change for Organization Leaders,” was held at San Jose, Mayantoc, Tarlac, on May 25, 2023. The participants of the training were 30 representatives from the Barangay council, people’s organization, out-of-school youths, and Sangguniang Kabataan.