

Water Recycling Program Implementation

Description:

During the rainy season, the Tarlac Agricultural University's ten (10) small water reservoirs (SWR) collect and store roughly 5,000 cubic meters of rainwater, which is then used for summertime plant irrigation. All of the university's needs can be adequately met by the amount of water these reservoirs hold.