

Sewage Disposal

Description:

In order to securely store household and lab waste, each building at Tarlac Agricultural University (TAU) is designed with its own septic tank and chemical vault, utilizing standard methods. By successfully preventing contamination of adjacent water sources, like aquifers and water reservoirs, this design protects the environment and public health.